

Kurt A. Jellinger, MD (short CV)

Born in Vienna, MD study Univ. of Vienna School of Medicine; specialist in neurology, psychiatry; ass. Prof. Institute of Neurology Vienna (1966), full professor of neuropathology Med. Univ. Vienna (1973), director Dept. of Neurology and L.Boltzmann Institute of Clinical Neurobiology (1977-2002), guest professor Med. Univ. Innsbruck and Graz (1998-2000). Member of many national and international societies, honorary member of German and Austrian Societies of Neurology, Neuropathology, Alzheimer and Parkinson disease societies, French and Hungarian societies of Neurology. Several national and international awards (for Med. Science, City of Vienna, Alzheimer-obelisk, Senator Burda and Lundbeck awards for Parkinson research, A.M.Jakob medal of German Soc. of Neuropathology, Meritorial Service award Amer. Ass. Neuropathol. Executive editor Acta Neuropathologica (1978-2005), member of editorial boards of many international journals. 557 papers in international refereed journals, editor and co-editor of several books and chapters in handbooks. Research interests: basic and clinical neuropathology, neurodegenerative diseases, dementias, movement disorders, problems of aging brain and neuronal death.

July 9, 2008.