

Dr. Mandel is the vice director of the Eve Topf Center of Excellence for Neurodegenerative Diseases Research and a Senior Research Fellow at the Department of Pharmacology, Faculty of Medicine, Technion. She has a worldwide reputation as one of the top experts within the field of functional genomics and proteomics in neurodegeneration and on the neuroprotective and neurorescue activity of green tea polyphenol, EGCG.